CFRS 770
Fraud and Forensic Accounting
Spring 2014

Instructor: Bob Osgood rosgood@gmu.edu
Engr 3255 Office Hours Friday 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM
Saturday 8:00 AM – 9:00 AM and also by appointment

Class Meets: Day: Net Asynchronous Time: N/A
Where: On line

Online Discussions Via Blackboard Collaborate: Approximately once per week and usually occurring on a Saturday, I will hold an online discussion forum via Blackboard Collaborate. This discussion forum is voluntary and student driven. We will discuss the lecture topic for that particular week. All students participating are required to use a microphone/speaker head set. Texting will not be permitted. The actual dates and times of these sessions will be emailed to you during that week; however, these discussion group meetings usually occur on Friday around 5:00PM. These sessions will be recorded. Although participation is not mandatory, positive active participation by students is noted and strongly suggested.

Course Description: Looks at accounting from a forensic perspective. Financial statement analysis, detection techniques, computer aided investigative processes, fraud detection, money laundering, interviewing, and other topics are covered. The class culminates in a final project where the student will present their findings to the class.

Course Goals: Prepares students to undertake forensic accounting and forensic analysis of financial statements a specialty practice area of accounting, in such a way that they will develop the necessary expertise, and be prepared to give expert evidence in any resultant trial.

Prerequisites: CFRS 500 and a working knowledge of financial statements and accounting
